

Treasure of Bletchley Park. The Wall Hanging.

The Bletchley Park Wall Hanging took Faye Barnwell one year to complete, being machine pieced and hand appliques in button hole stitch. Hand quilted into the Wall Hanging is our family who lived in Number 2 Cottage, Stable Yard in the Park from 1940 through until 1950 as our father was working there. Dad is walking to work, Mum hanging out the washing at Number 2, Bobby being chased by the geese - they always chased us. Jean and Faye going to school and Neville riding his bike. Also Radio Pylons, a Rose for peace, a Maze where the tennis courts are now, an ENIGMA machine, front and back station gates and wire on top of the fencing around the Park. The Grey area, top left corner is the Spinney woods outside the Back Gate. The music notes read There is no place like home.
