

Stolen Innocence: A Pedophile Exposed

What would you do if your 9 year old came to you and confided that she had been molested for longer than she could remember? What if the perpetrator was your husband, the man who pledged his love to you everyday? This was a man who stood in church each week praising God, who went out into the community testifying to bring other families into the church. Would you break down? Fall down? Scream? The Internet and dating sites are teeming with pedophiles and sex offenders. This true account tells the story of what happened to my family when we were confronted with one of these monsters.
