Excerpt from Grandmothers Scrap-Book; Or the Way to Do Good: Designed to Encourage the Highest Religious Attainments Within the Power of Man The object of this book is to encourage more philanthropy, more confidence in Christ, and perfect faith in prayer. In order to make any Christian progress, we must first consider the object of this life, - which is, to love and glorify God, and prepare to meet him in heaven. Knowing our duty, we next endeavor to learn Christ's example, and follow in his footsteps. It is the most difficult thing in this life to have our mind fixed on divine things: the care and confusion of this world choke the word. In order to have our thoughts directed more frequently in this direction, let us take the example of Christ.
